

Hoare-Style Logic for Unstructured Programs

Didrik Lundberg
KTH Royal Institute of Technology
didrik1@kth.se

May 22, 2021

There exist multiple logics for reasoning about unstructured programs, typically applied to machine code. I will present a novel approach - formalized in the interactive theorem prover HOL4 - and argue for why it serves as a more general foundation than the existing solutions.